& PRECINCTS IN MANHATTAN NY,

Defendant.

23-CV-2906 (LTS)

ORDER

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, Chief United States District Judge:

Plaintiff Yessuh Suhyes Hussey was detained in the Anna M. Kross Center when he filed this action pro se in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. On February 16, 2023, Plaintiff submitted a letter providing “emergency address[es] for when [he is] no longer in the custody of the Department of Correction.” (ECF 6, at 1.) The addresses provided include one in Brooklyn, New York, for his father and one in Maryland for his cousin. By orders dated March 24, 2023, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York transferred this action and two others to this district.¹

According to public records, Plaintiff is not currently in the custody of the New York City Department of Correction. It is unclear where Plaintiff is able to receive his mail. Plaintiff has the option of consenting to receive electronic service of documents at an email address if he has the capacity to do so. A form for the Plaintiff to complete and return to the Court if he wishes to consent to electronic service of documents by email is attached to this order. If Plaintiff does not wish to consent to electronic service of documents, he is directed to notify the Court in writing, within 30 days, of his currently mailing address.

CONCLUSION

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff at the “emergency addresses” in Brooklyn, New York, and Maryland that are listed on the docket. Plaintiff is directed to notify the Court in writing, within 30 days (1) of his current mailing address; or (2) whether he consents to electronic service of documents, which requires him to complete the attached form and return it to the Court. Plaintiff’s response must be submitted to the Pro Se Intake Unit of this Court, and his submission should be labeled with docket number 23-CV-2906 (LTS).

If Plaintiff does not comply with this order within the time allowed, the Court will dismiss Plaintiff’s complaint without prejudice to his refiling it.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962) (holding that an appellant demonstrates good faith when he seeks review of a nonfrivolous issue).

SO ORDERED.

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER¹ at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one “free look” at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail.² Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first “free look” or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the “free look” to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your “free look” and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.³

¹ Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) (www.pacer.uscourts.gov) is an electronic public access service that allows users to obtain case and docket information from federal appellate, district, and bankruptcy courts, and the PACER Case Locator over the internet.

² You must review the Court’s actual order, decree, or judgment and not rely on the description in the email notice alone. See ECF Rule 4.3
